Ratepayers Will Be Asked To Approve Water And Sewer Extension Plan

LAC LA BICHE — Town council met the evening of Sept. 24 with water and sewer extensions the chief subject on the agenda. A. B. Samuel of Associated Engineering Services Ltd. was in attendance to answer questions and give technical advice and assistance.

Earlier in the day a number of councillors accompanied Mr. Samuel to the southwest section of town to investigate the possibilities of building a sewer lagoon, which would eliminate the need for a lift station and section of pressure line in the proposed sewer extensions.

The lagoon type of sewer disposal has become quite common in towns in the past few years, but after a study of the area, it was considered unworkable. The proximity of dwelling to the only spot where such a lagoon could be placed, the boggy nature of the land and the danger of water pollution, were factors contributing to the decision to abandon the idea of a lagoon.

Estimates prepared by the engineering firm were studied carefully, with councillors demanding to know the reason for what seemed to be high costs for a sewer lift station, part of the proposed system. Mr. Samuel was frequently called upon to go into detail to explain estimates.

Council finally gave approval to a plan which will go before the ratepayers for approval as soon as the necessary arrangements are made.

The Memorial hall also came up for discussion at the meeting, and a tentative plan was presented by the consulting engineers, giving estimates of a suggested detailed plan to put the hall in operation. Further investigation into ways and means of financing the undertaking are continuing.

Edmonton Teachers Succumb As Flu Reaches Epidemic Proportions

EDMONTON (BUP)—Alberta health officials are becoming concerned at the increasing number of reported cases of Asian flu across the province.

Dr. A. Somerville, deputy minister of health, said Tuesday, that the strain of flu which has caused 50 Edmonton teachers to be absent from their classrooms, is undoubtably the Asian strain. He emphasized the disease is mild and there is no cause for alarm.

The deputy health minister said there was still no further word on Alberta's first shipment of Asian flu vaccine, and the date of its arrival from eastern Canada.

Meanwhile, Calgary medical officer of health, Dr. W. H. Hill reports that the city's outbreak of 'flu has reached epidemic proportions.

Dr. Hill says that the virus—almost definitely the Asian strain—is spreading like wildfire and has crossed the Bow river. Several cases were reported Monday on the north hill and more south Calgary schools were severly hit. "The epidemic phase of this influenza is just starting in Calgary," Dr. Hill declared. Seventy-six teachers have been stricken.

The outbreak presumably started with an isolated case two weeks ago and hit Currie Barracks a few days later.

Meanwhile Dr. Hill was concerned that the supply of vaccine for priority workers would fail to reach the city before it is too late. It is not due until next month. He forecast two weeks ago that once the flu hit the southern Alberta city it would sweep with lightning speed across the population. "We should have 5,000 people down in no time at all."

Advice to the public is to avoid crowds, if taken ill, go to bed and call a doctor.

Meanwhile two high schools in the British Columbia town of Trail were closed Monday by an epidemic flu. The Crowe Senior High School and the Trail Junior High School were closed after it was found 50 per cent of the pupils were ill. The schools will remain closed for at least ten days.

BUY AND APPLY NITROGEN

. . . the plant food your crop uses most for bigger, better yields in 1958!

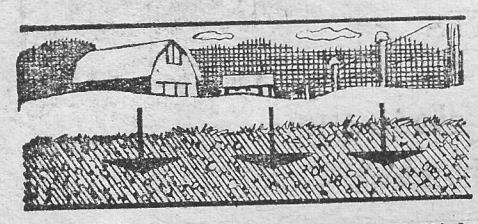
Your crops use more Nitrogen than any other plant food - for example, 40 bushels of wheat take away 47 lbs. of Nitrogen from your soil; 2 tons of brome hay take away over 60 lbs. of Nitrogen. This plant food must be replaced or your crops will be starved.

Spread Elephant Brand High Nitrogen Fertilizers* on stubble or pasture NOW! Next Spring, even before you can get on your land, grasslands are growing with fall-applied Nitrogen. Nitrogen put on stubble land this Fall speeds decomposition and is available as vital plant food when you seed in the Spring.

FOR GRASSLANDS

Nitrogen applied in the Fall means better forage growth. It means pasture is ready for grazing earlier, feeds more livestock and regrows faster. When you can put twice as many head on every acre, get them on the land from 3 to 4 weeks sooner in the Spring and keep them there longer, you make more money.

What's more, forage grown with Elephant Brand High Nitrogen Fertilizers* tastes better and is richer in essential proteins and minerals - you'll see the difference in fatter steers and heifers or increased milk production!



Melting snows carry Elephant Brand High Nitrogen Fertilizer to the root zone.

You can apply Elephant Brand High Nitrogen Fertilizer with a Universal Fertilizer Attachment by removing the bottom ends of the attachment hoses from the top of the grain ribbon tubes . . . with a worn-out grain drill with the furrow openers removed . . . or with a regular broadcast spreader.

FOR STUBBLE

Nitrogen on stubble speeds up decomposition of valuable crop residues. In Spring plant food from both crop residue and Nitrogen Fertilizer is available to the new crop. Young plants benefit immediately from the readily available food in Elephant Brand High Nitrogen Fertilizers*.

When you choose your High Nitrogen Fertilizer* from the Elephant Brand line, you add these benefits to your Fall-Fertilizing program.

HIGH ANALYSIS — more plant food in each bag, best value for your fertilizer dollar.
HIGH AVAILABILITY — all Elephant Brand's plant food content can be used by the growing plant.
HIGH WATER SOLUBILITY - dissolve readily in soil moisture to give quick-acting, easily absorbed plant food.

DISTRICT AGRICULTURIST NOTES

RAM ASSISTANCE PURCHASE POLICY

A new ram assistance purchase policy designed to assist commercial sheep breeders to improve their flocks by the use of approved purebred rams is announced by L. C. Halmrast, Minister of Agriculture.

The Alberta Department of Agriculture will pay a portion of the cost of graded or approved rams ordered direct through the Department or purchased through an approved ram sale. The assistance in each case will amount to $12.00 on each ram grading in the "Breeder" or A grade and $8.00 on each ram grading "Commercial" or "B" grade. In addition, transportation cost to the applicant's shipping point will be paid on rams ordered direct through the Department.

Applicants who wish to buy rams at the approved fall ram sales will make their own selection and purchase, and make application for bonus following the purchase.

Applicants who wish to order their rams through the Department should contact their district agriculturist or write to the Live Stock Branch, Alberta Department of Agriculture, Edmonton.

SOW THISTLE CAN BE CONTROLLED

Drought didn't have much if any effect on the well-rooted Sow Thistle, but cultivation and new herbicides can, maintains W. Lobay, supervisor of soils and weed control, Alberta Department of Agriculture. Using these methods this yellow-headed noxious perennial can be effectively controlled and eliminated in a relatively short time, he says.

It is important to check this weed's progress since it crowds out other useful plans and robs them of needed moisture. In the earlier stages, Sow Thistle can be controlled with 2,4-D but in the seed stage it becomes rather difficult. Patches of this weed in advanced seed stages in cropland should be mowed down now, raked and burnt to prevent seed from scattering to new areas. In some instances it may even be necessary to mow down heavily infested crops.

After harvest, if land is to be summerfallowed, tillage practices to destroy top growth should begin and be continued throughout the next summer. On light textured soils where frequent tillage is not advisable, the initial work on fallow should be left until the thistle is in bud. 2,4-D about 1 lb. per acre applied about two weeks before tilling would hasten eradication. Thorough tillage from this time onward until freeze-up should be continued as neeessary.

On non-crop land, esters of 2,4-D in repeated dosages of about 1 lb. per acre will do much to control and in some instances eradicate the thistle. Get after the Sow Thistle now, and prevent seeds from infesting your new land, advises Mr. Lobay. Be as persistant as the sow thistle and you'll soon get rid of this field and moisture robber.

ABUNDANT LIFE

BY ORAL ROBERTS

HEALING FOR THE AGED

God's goodness is not like an insurance policy that expires when the insured reaches a certain age. It is rather like the sunshine above us and the gentle breezes that blow upon us. His blessings are as warm and refreshing to the aged as to the young. The experiences of Moses, Joshua, Caleb, and many others show clearly that God's children can come to a ripe old age without becoming either decrepit or senile.

Certainly we are all getting older. But some have an abnormal fear and abhorrence of growing old. They fear the day when their strength is not what it has been, their minds not as keen, nor their step as vigorous and firm. I wish to tell you that this fear is unnecessary.

The Lord lays down specific laws for men to observe. They are commanded to be respectful and give gentle treatment to the aged. If the Lord requires other humans to treat the aged with respect and love, certainly he will do likewise.

Mrs. E. A. K., wife of the mayor of a city in North Carolina, had been ill for ten long weary years. She was an aged person, and medical science seemed to have little to offer her. Below is the story written by Mrs. K. two and one-half years after her healing.

"In 1939, I was stricken down with high blood pressure and heart trouble. The rupturing of blood vessels in my head rendered me temporarily blind each time this occurred. Then, one year later, I had a stroke of paralysis in my left side. My left arm and leg became useless.

"Heart attacks became so violent that I was confined strictly to my room. I lay absolutely helpless in the bed . . . could not even lift my arms to bathe, or feed myself. My head would fall on my chest, and I could not get it back up to save my life. Sometimes there was blindness and unconsciousness for minutes at a time. I lost 100 pounds of weight in the ten years of my sickness! At the time I was healed, I weighed exactly 90 pounds!

"On the night of December 13, 1949, I was healed in answer to prayer! All helplessness left me. My limbs were no longer heavy, and I could walk, could even run and lift my hands above my head! Since then I have complete use of my once paralyzed limbs; my heart that was swollen is normal, and never a recurrence in these two and a half years." Mrs. K. concluded by saying, "God did a wonderful job of healing me completely."

The time will come when God will take you to heaven, but you do not have to leave this world afflicted with painful and malicious diseases. The book of Deuteronomy promises, "As thy days, so shall thy strength be." When you come to the end of your journey the Lord will simply say, "It is enough, come up higher." But until that day, I believe that no matter how old you are the promise of healing is still yours.

A prominent farm official, Gordon L. Harrold, of Lamont, has been appointed managing director of the Alberta Wheat Pool's newly formed Seed Division.

The Seed Division was set up following the purchase of the properties of the Alberta Seed Growers' Co-operative Limited, and commencing August 1, it will handle forage and cereal seed crops for Alberta farmers.

Mr. Harrold, an operating farmer in the Lamont district, has been active in farm organizations for many years. He is vice-chairman of Alberta Wheat Pool's Board of Directors, a director of the Canadian Federation of Agriculture, and last January was elected president of the Alberta Federation of Agriculture. Girls Leave Loot In Car

MANNVILLE—When Don Upton noticed two teen-age girls carrying suitcases along highway 16, he became suspicious after having heard news of 2 girls missing. He came back to town as the girls were headed east and notified Constable Allen, Mayor Williams and the Rev. C. C. McPherson, who went in search of the two.

However, the same girls were then found going north and turned over to the RCMP, Vermilion, being driven in Upton's car. Next morning it became apparent that the two girls were participants in a robbery, as the police searched Upton's car, which, to his amazement, yielded two watches and a wallet, part of the loot. They had been slipped down the side of the car seat on the journey to Vermilion by the miscreants.

Pot Luck Supper Enjoyed By Many

MANNVILLE—The Anglican W. A. pot luck supper with many casserole dishes to choose from, scalloped potatoes, riced potatoes, roast beef, ham and savory cabbage rolls, salads, pickles, as well as other entrees, pies and cakes, was voted as a success. Anglican Church people enjoyed all they could eat for $1.00 per family. It is not the money raised at an affair such as this but the fellowship which accompanies it, that is considered important to the W. A. groups. Pig in-the-poke was won by Mrs. E. Hubbard.

Brothers Visit Home District

ANDREW — John and Nick Krawchuk of Vancouver, B.C., spent their three-week holiday visiting their relatives and many friends in Kahwin and Andrew districts. John left his home in the Kahwin district in 1930 and Nick left later in the early 1940's.

Another visitor to the district was Tom Ostashek, son of Mrs. Metro Ostashek. Tom is enrolled in Basic Electronics at the R.C.A.F. Station at Clinton, Ont.

THE REMAINS of the Stinson 4-station wagon airplane in the background does not seem to disturb these three lads. They are left to right, David, Mark and Peter Gamache, sons of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Gamache of Falher. The Stinson, soon after take-off from the Levesque airstrip in Falher, burst into flames. The pilot, Art Walker and three passengers had barely time to escape from the burning wreckage.

BUILDING HIS SIXTH CHURCH, Roman Catholic priest Rev. J. Watchel of Grimshaw gets ready to take a keg of nails from Julian Schieler, one of a dozen men working in a Wednesday afternoon building bee.

R.C. PRIEST BUILDS SIXTH CHURCH

When you're building your sixth church you're hoping it will be your last one, especially if you're a Roman Catholic priest and not really a carpenter.

The Rev. J. Watchel has done much of the work himself on the new church that is being built next to the curling rink, also under construction.

He has built four other churches and remodelled another. His skill in carpentry has grown from necessity. With help scarce during the war and building to be done—and no one but himself to do it—Rev. Watchel picked up a hammer and went to work. And he hasn't stopped yet.

'I'm hoping this will be the last one," he said as he tilted his work cap off his tanned brow. "There are 250 Roman Catholics in this area and this carpentry business is time consuming."

The present church has a congregation of approximately 125. Rev. Watchel feels there is much work to be done among the young people, especially the teen-agers. With this in mind the church will have a basement hall where young folks can meet.

Either the existing churrch will be sold or, if possible, moved to Dixonville which has no church building of its own.

Rev. Watchel studied for the priesthood at Battleford and was ordained in 1939.

While serving at Blumenfeld, Sask. for five years he remodelled the church. He built a church at St. John's Sask. where he was stationed for four years. In another seven year period he built churches at Rastadt, Sask., Worsley and Hines Creek.

He has been in Grimshaw for two years.

The roof was expected to be on by the end of September and ready for worship by November. In the basement is the rectory consisting of office, kitchen, dining room and two bedrooms. The church will be quite modern in design with a very steep roof and floor length windows.

Recounts Story Of Overseas Trip

HAIRY HILL — Joyce Ewanchuk, was a weekend visitor at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Ewanchuk, Miss Ewanchuk, a teacher at Lauderdale Public School in Edmonton, treated her parents and relatives with numerous fascinating stories concerning her recent two-month holiday abroad.

Miss Ewanchuk brought back numerous souvenirs from abroad. Joyce has been so well impressed by her visit abroad that she plans to return and perhaps take up residence in England, within the next few years.

Bitten By Dog

BROWNVALE — Lenny Lund, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Lund was bitten by the family dog last Friday.

He was rushed to the doctor and Berwyn Hospital, and several stitches were taken to close the wound. Tests are being taken to determine whether the dog is suffering from rabies.

Stooks Or Ducks?

SUNSET HOUSE — Hon. Solon E. Low, M.P., was a recent unofficial visitor to the district, when he and Bob Moore paid a short visit to busy farmers. Mr. Low tried his hand at stooking and seemed quite adept at the work as he put up a few stooks on the farm of J. Morawski. Goose hunting was really the reason for the trip and not to show skill of stooking.

ENGLAND'S ANN MARSTON, champion at 19, was born in Sherwood Forest, legendary home of Robin Hood. Ann says some of the feats attributed to the archers of the middle ages are "sheer malarkey. Anything they could do with bow and arrow then, we can do twenty times better today."

Forage Seed Shows Gains

Based on returns of a questionnaire mailed to some 2,000 producers, the Alberta Department of Agriculture reports that the area devoted to the production of forage crop seed in 1957, is greater than last year.

The estimated areas by kinds for 1957 expressed as a percentage of the 1956 areas, is as follows: alfalfa, 110%; alsike clover, 190%; red clover, 240%; sweet clover, 210%; timothy, 135%; brome grass, 80% crested wheat grass, 70%, and creeping red fescue, 110%.

The yield and production of these crops will be determined later on the basis of returns from a second questionnaire to be mailed to growers when harvesting is completed.

Bursaries

Two Wheat Pool bursaries, worth $2,500 each at the University of Alberta, have been awarded to smart young farm youths. The winners are Keith Nicholson of Vegreville and Robert McAuley of Pincher Creek. The awards are annuals, being made on the basis of scholastic ability, character and community activities.

PLAMONDON—A bridal shower honoring Lucille Gauthier, bride of Sept. 30, was held at the home of Mrs. Elphege Dancause. A large crowd of ladies attended.

Mrs. Dancause and Mrs. Charles Gaudet acted as hostesses providing entertainment, which kept the party alive.
